

HUNTER
COLLEGE

BLACK GEOGRAPHIES AND ECOLOGIES

GEOG 28306/AFPRL 2901C

PLURALISM AND DIVERSITY REQUIREMENT - GROUP B & D DESIGNATION PENDING

TU 11:30AM - 2:20PM

COURSE DESCRIPTION

This course provides an introduction to key and current literature in Black Geographies and Black Ecologies and explores how Black geographies and ecologies can enrich our understandings of how race, the environment, and power are materially and symbolically entangled.

THEMES

- Historic Black Communities
- Black Women's Impact on Geography
- Understanding Wakanda through Critical Geography
- Black Fictional Geographies
- Black Freedom and Resistance Movements
- The Prison-Industrial Complex
- The Case for Reparations
- Racial and Environmental Justice

DR. ALEX MOULTON

AM16981@HUNTER.CUNY.EDU

DEPT OF GEOGRAPHY &
ENVIRONMENTAL SCIENCE