Goals/objective and the outcome:

The main goal and objective of this class is to study and understand the new approaches of development in the developing countries. It aims at learning the new bottom-up approaches of sustainable development as oppose to the old top-down approaches. By the end of this course, you should have a better understanding of the complex and dynamic interrelations between sustainable development in the developing countries with much emphasis on policies, strategies, available resources, and progress and sustainability of development in regions that suffer from physical and socio-economic challenges.

Expected Learning Outcomes:

At the end of the course students will be able to:

- Know a general and broad knowledge of the major issues of sustainable development in the developing countries.
- You will have knowledge of sustainable development as a holistic approach that links the process of environmental, economic and social change together now and in the future.
- To learn and discuss the importance of sustainable development, its needs, reduction of poverty, enhancing food security and improving life style.
- Know some of the key geographic, environmental and social justice issues facing our world today.
- Ability to think and write critically about these issues.
- Demonstrate the structure of scientific writing.

11. The deadline for submission of the first paper is November 12, 2019 and the other December 3, 2019.
12. If you have any question(s) come and see me.

Attendance and Grading Policies:

1. There is a direct correlation between good grades and good attendance. Come to the class prepared, read the appropriate articles of the reading list, take notes, study for your exams and you will be successful. Attendance is taken at every class meeting.
2. I do not give incompletes (IN) except under the most extraordinary, and documented, circumstances.
3. If you miss an exam, you must (1) contact me within 48 hours of the missed exam, (2) present acceptable documentary evidence for your absence, and (3) arrange a make-up exam at a mutually convenient date and time. A make-up exam covers the same materials as the regular exam but will not be the same exam given as scheduled.

HUNTER COLLEGE'S STATEMENT ON ACADEMIC HONESTY:

Hunter College regards acts of academic dishonesty (e.g., plagiarism, cheating on examinations, obtaining unfair advantage, and falsification of records and official documents) as serious offenses against the values of intellectual honesty. The College is committed to enforcing the CUNY Policy on Academic Integrity and will pursue cases of academic dishonesty according to the Hunter College Academic Integrity Procedures.

And I might add that creative originality and integrity are essential if you want to develop the kind of knowledge that is going to do you any good in life. When you cheat at school, the one you are really cheating is ultimately your future self.

ADA Policy

In compliance with the American Disability Act of 1990 (ADA) and with Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973, Hunter College is committed to ensuring educational parity and accommodations for all students with documented disabilities and/or medical conditions. It is recommended that all students with documented disabilities (Emotional, Medical, Physical, and/or Learning) consult the Office of ACCESSABILITY, located in Room E1214B, to secure necessary academic accommodations. For further information and assistance, please call: (212) 772- 4857 or (212) 650-3230.
